

Title 1 Program Family Evenings

Schedule of Dates 2011-2012 School Year

April 24, 2012 5:45 South School

Description: What do Good Readers Do?

A presentation of grade level/reading level books will be displayed and discussed as they pertain to reading strategies for students Pre-K – 6. Strategies for teaching children to read, importance of home reading, cultivating independent reading at home, how to choose appropriate books, how to challenge a developing reader.

Presenter: Holbrook Public Library

Holbrook Public Library will join us to share “Story Hour” opportunities during the week. The library has agreed to extend their “Story Hour” and research hours/days for HPS students. Information about schedule for library activities and supports for families will be shared during this presentation.

“Story Hour”: 6 week long intervals, theme led. Thursday after school hours, or Saturday time options available.

May 15, 2012 5:45 South School

Description: Writing Strategies for Young Learners

A description of the John Collins writing process will be shared in brief to families across the grade levels PreK-6. Topics will also include, inspiring children to write, ideas for encouraging children to communicate through writing, writing at home and homework management.